Note 3 - Functional Expenses

The financial statements report certain categories of expenses that are attributable to one or more program or supporting functions of the Organization. Those expenses include depreciation, executive salaries and benefits, administrative and professional fees and supplies expense. Depreciation is allocated based on a square footage basis, executive salaries and benefits are allocated based upon the estimates of time and effort, administrative and professional fees are allocated based on the benefit received and supplies is allocated based on estimates of specific usage of supplies.

Does your Organization currently have the detailed methodology in place that this disclosure will require?
