Our collection of velvet platform sandals includes a variety of colors, spanning Black, Brown, Beige and more. Finding the perfect accessories for you may mean sifting through those that were made during different time periods — popular versions of these were made as early as the 20th Century and a newer one, made as recently as the 21st Century, can also be found on the site. Velvet platform sandals such as these have likely been a part of the legacy of many fashion designers, but those produced by Aquazzura, miu miu and Dolce & Gabbana are consistently popular. Finding accessories for sale for women should be easy, but there are 1 pieces available to browse for men as well as unisex, too.Prices for velvet platform sandals can differ depending upon size, time period and other attributes — on 1stDibs, these accessories begin at $185 and can go as high as $2,594, while these items, on average, fetch $420.Today, vintage and designer shoes by the likes of Chanel, Gucci or Versace are integral to completing your carefully orchestrated street-style or evening ensemble, but footwear wasn't always the big deal it is for your average Adidas Yeezy enthusiast.The decorative floor-length gowns that upper-class women of the 18th century wore meant that their shoes, then likely featuring high curved heels finished with woven or embroidered silks — a sharp contrast to the heavy, rudimentary form of the era's footwear for men — were partially or entirely obscured by the base of their ornate dresses. What good is fashion if it's tucked away?Our modern age's legions of sneakerheads might have trouble tracking down a pair of black-and-gold vintage Jordans but can at least fill their dream closets with original Adidas Gazelles or 1980s New Balances if they put the time in, while 1990s-era Prada pumps or a good pair of mid-20th-century jewel-tone heels in satin or silk haven't lost their allure with today's nostalgic fashionistas.A pair of shoes can commemorate an achievement, mark an important trip overseas and is sometimes a rich manifestation of a hard-won physical feat. Whether they're Hermès sandals, Off-White ankle boots, ivory-leather-and-pink-daisy heels by sublime shoemaker Manolo Blahnik or Louboutin platform pumps, you can find your next pair of legendary luxury vintage shoes today on 1stDibs.
